

“The Ocean”

Reading Comprehension – Short Stories

Directions: Read the story. Then answer the questions below.

The ocean is big.

The ocean is blue.

The ocean has waves.

Some waves are small. Some waves are very small. They are tiny!

Some waves are big. Some waves are very big. They are huge!

In some places, the ocean is very deep.

In some places, you cannot see the bottom.

Questions:

1) Is the ocean small or big?

- A. The ocean is small.
- B. The ocean is big.

2) What color is the ocean?

- A. blue
- B. yellow
- C. brown

3) What is the ocean made of?

- A. air
- B. water
- C. fire

4) What does tiny mean?

- A. small
- B. very small
- C. big
- D. very big

Questions (continued):

5) What does huge mean?

- A. small
- B. very small
- C. big
- D. very big

6) Why can't you see the bottom of the ocean in some places?

- A. because the ocean is dirty
- B. because the ocean is deep
- C. because the ocean has many waves

7) Which words can we use to describe the ocean?

▼ Check three that are correct.

- A. big
- B. blue
- C. happy
- D. tiny
- E. deep

Do you like the ocean? What do you like about it? What don't you like about it?
